Planning a barbecue — and wondering what to cook?

Extension specialists say that any meat normally broiled in the kitchen can be grilled outdoors.

Steaks ,poultry, franks, and hamburgers lead the list.

Thick cuts of meat are best for outdoor cooking, so buy steaks and chops at least one inch thick. Canned meats, cold cuts, and other meats should be cut into slices about one-half inch thick.

Before broiling steaks and chops, slash the outside edges of fat to keep the meat from curling during cooking. Place the meat on the grill 2 to 3 inches from glowing coals. Meat thicker than 2 inches should be placed further from the coals.

Length of time depends upon the thickness of the meat, its distance from the hot coals, and how well done you like it. The best way to determine whether it is done is to cut into the center of the meat or near the bone. Turn steaks, chops, and poultry during cooking with tongs to avoid puncturing the meat and allowing juices to escape. You will find tongs easy to use on frank and ground meat patties, too.

Roadside Welcome Signs Erected In 49 Counties

Forty-nine counties in Virginia have bought and erected 175 4-H roadside "welcome" sings since the standard state 4-H sign was adopted in 1956.

The signs are ordered through county agents, who in turn send the orders to the state 4-H Office in Blacksburg. Painted with a white background and green letters, the signs carry the 4-H colors. On some of them, the number of 4-H members in the county is shown.

Chesterfield leads in the number of signs erected, with 12. Next are Pittsylvania with 10, Loudoun with 8, and Southampton with 7.

Underwater Record

Reseda, Cal.- A shapely secretary spent a week-end in a backyard swimming pool — on the bottom.

When Mrs. Alberta Jones surfaced she claimed a record for staying under water 50 hours, 2 minutes and 13 seconds.

Mrs. Jones, 36, used an underwater breathing device and drank soup through squeeze bottles. She did it as a promotion stunt for a swimming pool contractor.

Lions and Jaycees Issue Thanks For Horse Show Support

Many favorable comments have been heard about the first Horse Show ever held in Appomattox. The show, co-sponsored by the Lions and Jaycees last Saturday, for the benefit of the high school athletic field, was presented before approximately 1,000 persons. It was a big success and plans are under way for another one next year.

The comimttee, headed by Thelbert M. Trent, wishes to thank all of the Lions and Jaycees for their part in making the show a success.

Also the Lions and Jaycees would like to express their appreciation to all the businessmen in the area, who helped so much with contributions. Also the newspapers, radio, and television stations for publicity.

At a later date, it is hoped that a statement can be published concerning proceeds from the show and progress being made on the high school athletic field.

VALUE-RATE the ROCKET

The man who knows value goes Olds!

More and more medium-priced car buyers who want the most for their money are joining the swing to Olds.

Why? Because they figure up all the extra quality features and conveniences Olds has as standard equipment. They carefully consider the economy of the Rocket Engine ... the low-cost maintenance of an Olds ... its higher resale value. But most of all they ask themselves,

"Is this the kind of car my family and I will be proud to own ... one that will give us the full measure of fun and comfort see soon ... is this the car whose style will stay in style?"

The overwhelming "yes" can be found in the zooming sales success of the '59 Oldsmobile. See your Oldsmobile dealer today ... Value-Rate the Rocket!
